

Reading Connections, Inc.

AmeriCorps Adult Literacy Program Assistant – High Point & Greensboro

Full-Time (1700 hours)

Reading Connections provides basic literacy instruction through 1:1 volunteer tutoring and small group classes for adults in Guilford County. Our classes include level-based reading classes, English language classes for immigrants and refugees, math classes, computer literacy classes, pre-high school equivalency classes, family literacy classes and employment skills programs. Tutoring and classes are provided both to native English speakers and to students learning English as another language. Reading Connections has a comprehensive tutor program that prepares and supports volunteers from the community to provide high-quality, individualized literacy instruction.
